Prayer Corner: Trusting God as Our Navigator

Lately, I've been traveling a lot, relying entirely on my GPS to get me where I need to go. I never question whether it will lead me astray. I trust that voice, those maps, and the route it gives me—even when it takes me down a road I've never traveled before. I don't worry or doubt. I simply follow.

But then I started wondering: Why is it so easy to trust a GPS—a tool that only knows where I want to go because I tell it—but so much harder to trust God with my life's direction? A GPS is limited. It can only work with the information I give it, and it can't see what's truly best for me. And yet, I follow it without hesitation. God, on the other hand, is all-knowing and loving. He sees the whole picture. He knows me better than I know myself. And He has a destination for me—a purpose and a plan—that is more wonderful than anything I can imagine.

Scripture Reading

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight."
— Proverbs 3:5-6 (NIV)

Reflection

Why do we sometimes struggle to trust God, even though He's the perfect Navigator? Maybe it's because we like to feel in control. Maybe it's because we can't always see where He's taking us. Unlike a GPS, God doesn't hand us a complete list of turn-by-turn directions. He asks us to trust—step by step, day by day.

But imagine the places He can take us if we let Him guide us! With God, the destination is not just a place, but a life full of meaning, peace, and joy—a journey beyond anything we could plan for ourselves.

Prayer

Lord, help me to trust You more completely than I trust my GPS. Remind me that Your plans are always good, and You know the way, even when I don't. Give me faith to follow where You lead, believing that Your destination for my life is better than anything I could imagine. Amen.

Challenge:

This week, whenever you use your GPS, let it be a reminder to trust God with your decisions and your future. He's the perfect Navigator. Will you follow Him?

Thank you,
Veronica Boyd
