

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Miss McPherson - 2B

- Students will start each school day “fresh”
- First incident of misbehavior will result in a warning
- Second incident of misbehavior will result in time out of recess
- Third incident of misbehavior will result in a communication report sent home
- Further misbehavior will result in student being sent to the office
- Incidents of misbehavior will be recorded on the student's calendar sent home daily to be initialed by parents

At my discretion students may be sent directly to the office without all of the above steps being followed. This would happen in cases of fighting, cheating, showing disrespect, and other serious offenses outlined in the school handbook. Positive behavior will also be acknowledged with words of praise and small rewards. Daily calendar will come home with stickers or stamps when students have a good day at school.

Homebound students will be expected to follow all classroom rules. If there is an issue with behavior a warning will be given. If the behavior occurs again, parents will be sent an email about the behavior that needs to change.

HOMEWORK

- Homework will be given on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings as outlined on the homework calendar in your student's folder.
- Homework calendars are to be initialed after assignments are completed each day.

MISSED ASSIGNMENTS

- Students will be given a missed assignment slip for each homework assignment or seatwork page sent home that is not completed and returned the following day.
- Grace will be given for 2 missed or incomplete assignments in each quarter of the school year.
- The 3rd missed or incomplete assignment each quarter will result in a communication report sent home.
- The 4th missed or incomplete assignment will result in a communication report sent home WITH A DETENTION.

General Procedures:

- Homework and behavior calendars are to be initialed each day and sent back to school
- Library books should be sent to school EACH DAY. Students have many opportunities throughout the day to read and prepare for AR tests.
- Any seatwork that comes home unfinished must be completed and sent back to school the next day
- Weekend folders should be emptied of school work each week. Only calendars, re-dos, and tests should be placed back in the folder and returned to school.
- Communication reports must be signed and the WHITE COPY sent back to school the next day.
