The Page Corner:

Dear Calvary Parents,

Week two is off to a great start! A special shout-out to our 6th graders—our lunch together was a joy, and I loved hearing their goals for the year. Next Wednesday, I will be having a meet and greet lunch with our 7th graders so they will not need to bring lunch.

Beginning next Tuesday, we'll begin to pilot a new pick-up process to keep our children safe and to help the afternoon pic-up to run more smoothly. All parents will use the carpool line (no parking). You'll receive details on this plan in my "End of Week" email.

Also on Friday, you'll receive a short parent survey. Your feedback helps us serve your family well—please take a few minutes to complete it by next week.

As always, my door is open. I'm grateful for your partnership and excited for all God is doing in this new season.

With appreciation,
Dr. Natalie R. Page
Head of School

Spiritual Nugget:

I am Accepted Because...I am a Child of God

“But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.” – John 1:12

When you were born again, everything about your life changed. Many people assume that everyone is automatically a child of God, but Scripture teaches otherwise. Jesus Himself told the religious hypocrites that they were children of the devil because they imitated his works. But those who receive Christ, who believe and surrender to Him, are adopted into God’s family. You now belong to the Father, and your identity is rooted in His love.

As a child of God, you have access to His presence, His peace, and His promises. Just like a child freely enters the father’s house, you are welcomed into God’s presence with confidence. You are not rejected, abandoned, or overlooked—you are accepted, cherished, and deeply loved. When rejection or loneliness whispers to your heart, remember that your Father is near. He lives inside of you by His Spirit, to comfort, guide, and strengthen you.

Whatever you need today—peace, joy, hope, forgiveness, strength—your Father offers it freely. Call on Him, cry out “Abba, Father,” and let Him hold you with His perfect love. In His embrace, you will always find acceptance.

Prayer Father, thank You for making me Your child through Jesus Christ. When I feel rejected or alone, remind me of Your never-failing love. Help me walk in the truth that I am accepted, cherished, and cared for by You. Fill me with Your joy, peace, and strength today. I call on You, Abba Father, and I trust that You will supply all I need. In Jesus’ name, Amen.
